To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of David Taylor. David managed the job of painting our house as part of an internship program. David handled himself in a courteous and professional manner, and followed through on every aspect of the project. He was always punctual and extremely thorough. I observed David supervising several workers at once. He managed his crew in a way that was strong and competent, but at the same time supportive and patient. Part of his responsibilities was to teach the inexperienced painting crew members the skills necessary to carry out the job. David used a solid "hands on" approach to show his staff the proper techniques.

David showed a strong work ethic, confidence and genuine enthusiasm to get the job done right. That is why I highly recommend David Taylor for your consideration. He will be a valuable asset to whatever endeavor he chooses to pursue.

Sincerely,

Eric Banducci
