To Whom It May Concern,

We would like to elaborate highly the professional painting job done on our Home. Tom Bay and his crew (Steve Bussicullo) unfortunately had one of the most rainiest months on record, but they persevered. The power washing, staining of the cedar shingles, painting of the front door and around the windows took many hours longer then expected. They were quick, quiet, mannerly and took care of all the extra details we discussed with them.

Again, our many thanks to them for a job well done and we enjoyed their respect for our home.

With regards,

Steve and Mary Suto
