To Whom It May Concern

I was very pleased with the workmanship and courtesy shown me by Alex Corvelle and his crew when painting my house. Their workmanship and diligence was appreciated as they painted throughout the day.

Alex was professional in dealing with me when planning the job. He kept me posted as to when to expect his arrival and that of his crew. He answered my questions thoroughly and met my concerns when discussing the job. If I felt something needed to be addressed he saw to it that it was done.

I would recommend Alex and his crew to those who wish a professional job well done.

Sincerely,

Frances M. Whited
