Now that the painting of my house and deck are complete, I'd like to report that this project was a complete success! Handled in a completely professional manner, the work on my house has significantly enhanced the appearance of the property.

Now that the painting of my house and deck are complete, I'd like to report that this project was a complete success! Handled in a completely professional manner, the work on my house has significantly enhanced the appearance of the property.

The project manager, Toby Frost, communicated frequently during the planning and execution of the project; he researched all the questions I had and problem solved as issues arose. Knowing that I needed to have the work completed before a family event at my house, he planned around the weather and his crew's other work to complete the job in time. He and his crew were extremely polite and took care in protecting the plants and shrubs while painting. Toby will have a great future given the skills he has already demonstrated in communication, resourcefulness, problem solving, organization, and managing people.
