Re: Stephanie Rozzo, Team Leader; George and Daniel, Painters

It is a true joy to see your home's appearance change from the dull, dingy, and weather-beaten to the newly painted look.

It is also important for your neighborhood.

The team did this in a well organized, meticulous and conscientious manner. They were always polite. Considerate, and extremely efficient on a daily basis. They appeared to work well together; with good team spirit, an innate pride in their work, and a never wavering tenacity to their well planned work schedule. Yes, the schedule was closely followed each and everyday.

The daily walk around kept me informed of the painter's progress. I am appreciative and pleased of this consideration shown me by the team.

This team is well disciplined, coordinated and trained. In my judgment, The Team merits special consideration in their quest for future jobs. It is a matter of excellence.

Sincerely,

Roy A. Nelson
