

College Works Painting Reference Letter

Dave _____

I have been pleased with the professional manner by which Brett Valentino and college works have painted my house. I have also been pleased with the efficient and timely manner by which the job was done.

June 9, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been pleased with the professional manner by which Brett Valentino and college works have painted my house. I have also been pleased with the efficient and timely manner by which the job was done.

The process began with a walk around to determine what I wanted to be done. The some process took place at the end of each work do to make earn what was determined to be done was done. This a satisfies _____.

The job was completed in a brief period of the ordinary the horal climate conditions Brett Valentino hold things together, mode necessary adjustments and target his mens on touch. Overall a very professional job.

I strongly recommend Brett Valentino and college works.

Respectfully,

June 9, 2008

To whom it may concern:

I have been pleased with the professional manner by which Brett Valentino and College works have painted my house. I have also been pleased with the efficient and timely manner by which the job was done.

The process began with a walk around to determine what I wanted to be done. The same process took place at the end of each workday to make sure what was determined to be done was done. This is a satisfactory approach.

The job was completed in a brief period of time considering the local climatic conditions. Brett Valentino held things together, made necessary adjustments and kept his crew on track. Overall a very professional job.

I strongly recommend Brett Valentino and College works.

Respectfully.