To whom it may concern:

This letter is to inform you of the excellent work performed by Adrian Trumbo and his staff.

Adrian was the consummate professional throughout this process, always keeping us informed of the schedule and their progress. Adrian has made painting our house a pleasurable experience. Having many years in the professional business world, I can see Adrian going far.

I also have to give accolades to his painting staff. They put in long hours and did an excellent job painting our home. They always handled themselves in a very polite, professional manner, taking great care in maintaining a clean working environment.

Sincerely,

Jon & Sheri Swanzy
