

College Works Painting Reference

Marcy L. Hikida

I just wanted to express my satisfaction with working with Collage Works and Chris Hamilton, my project manager.

3526 N.W. 67th st.
Seattle, WA 9817

June 4, 2008

College Works Painting

Re: Letter of Recommendation/Chris Hamilton

To Whom it may Concern:

I just wanted to express my satisfaction with working with Collage Works and Chris Hamilton, my project manager.

From top to bottom, beginning to end, Chris was extremely professional and made every effort to complete my painting project in exactly the way I wanted it and in a timely manner. Chris' personable manner, flexibility and timely communication, ensured my experience with College Works was easy and resulted in a job well done.

I would definitely work with Chris and College Works again and recommend him to anyone interested in enjoying a painless painting experience.

Sincerely,

Marcy L. Hikida

3526 N.W. 67th St.
Seattle, WA 98117

June 4, 2008

College Works Painting

Re: Letter of Recommendation/Chris Hamilton

To Whom it may Concern:

I just wanted to express my satisfaction with working with College Works and Chris Hamilton, my project manager. From top to bottom, beginning to end, Chris was extremely professional and made every effort to complete my painting project in exactly the way I wanted it and in a timely manner. Chris' personable manner, flexibility and timely communication, ensured my experience with College Works was easy and resulted in a job well done. I would definitely work with Chris and College Works again and recommend him to anyone interested in enjoying a painless painting experience.

Sincerely,

Marcy L. Hikida

