I learn of College Works Painting when Kyle Nakayama, Independent Branch Operator, Knocked on my door and ask if I needed my house painted (he had a hunch it did from the peeling paint and bare wood around the door). He fully explained the process, giving me all options, and by the time he was finished I was concerned – it was indeed time to paint the exterior trim.

I learn of College Works Painting when Kyle Nakayama, Independent Branch Operator, Knocked on my door and ask if I needed my house painted (he had a hunch it did from the peeling paint and bare wood around the door). He fully explained the process, giving me all options, and by the time he was finished I was concerned –it was indeed time to paint the exterior trim. I was, in fact, so impressed I recommended he talk with other family members that might be interested.

Kyle was extremely professional, courteous and knowledgeable. He explained the importance of good preparation, use of quality paint and the warranties that were available. He detailed how the company worked and the benefits he and his team would realize from their work experience.

He and the young man helping him, Greg Richardson, showed up when they said they would, worked extremely hard, left my yard neat and clean at the end of the day and were polite and pleasant to interact with.

Overall, I am extremely happy with the results of their work on the trim and have plans to call them next year to have the rest of the house done. I would recommend them to anyone without reservation.

A very satisfied customer,
