We're very thankful for the administration, preparation and painting work that was provided by Miss Brianna, Mr. John and Mr. John. The work that was provided was professional with a touch of humor as a bonus.

To Whom It May Concern:

We're very thankful for the administration, preparation and painting work that was provided by Miss Brianna, Mr. John and Mr. John. The work that was provided was professional with a touch of humor as a bonus.

We're also very thankful for their flexibility of working around our schedule and for putting in such a long two day of work, besides the initial work contact and power washing.

Our home definitely shines in this neighborhood. May these young people continue to lead by example that hard work dose pay off.

All our best wishes upon this company, Collegeworks, and those involved.

Sincerely,
