Jeehuon Yi
College Works Painting

Dear Sir or Madam:

As highly satisfied customers, we would recommend Jeehuon Yi and College Works Painting to anyone interested in painting their home.

I was very impressed with the professionalism in their presentation, the actual painting job, and the follow up at completion. Customer satisfaction appeared to be the mission among the workers. The process was detailed, and they set high expectations of themselves that were met and exceeded. Jeehuon, and all the workers were polite and accommodating on special needs. I felt as though my property was respected and protected while they were on the job. These individuals really pulled together and took their job seriously! They always showed up on time, even in bad weather to stay on schedule and complete the job. They finished on time, and took great pride in their workmanship.

College Works does a great job of informing their customers of their product and service, and delivering a superb job. For a top quality job done at a fair price I recommend College works painting.

Sincerely,

Scott and Susan Fairbarren
