

College Works Painting Reference Letter
Stewart Kim Saunders

I would like to thank Jill and David for the job that they, did painting our house. They were very friendly and courteous and left a clean work site each night.

June 23, 2004

College Works Painting

To whom it may concern:

I would like to thank Jill and David for the job that they, did painting our house. They were very friendly and courteous and left a clean work site each night.

Angela is a very good salesperson – she had an answer for all of our questions. She was also very attentive to any questions or concerns that we had while the job was going on.

Very truly yours,

Stewart Kim Saunders

cc: College Works Painting

June 23, 2004

College Works Painting

To whom it may concern:

I would like to thank Jill and David for the job that they did painting our house. They were very friendly and courteous and left a clean work site each night.

Angela is a very good salesperson – she had an answer for all of our questions. She was also very attentive to any questions or concerns that we had while the job was going on.

Very truly yours,

cc: College Works Painting