To Whom It May Concern

This is a general letter of reference for Courtney Braly of College Works Painting. My house was painted by a crew of two, James Walton and Brienne Wissler, in July, 2004.

Overall, I am pleased with the job performed by the painters. Courtney Braly handled the whole procedure in a professional manner, returning all my calls promptly and answering all my questions pertaining to the job. She also has excellent managerial skills and was reliable, courteous, dependable and friendly. James and Brienne were courteous and hardworking and I really appreciated the fact that they did a good job cleaning up the place after the job was completed.

I am happy with the finished product and would recommend College Works Painting to my friends. Please feel free to email me at cheng@sou.edu if you need further information,
