We would like to say how professional Angela Buckner and Jesse Nichols were at presenting the proposal to us to have our house painted. We weren't looking to have this done but couldn't pass up the opportunity to help out hard working college kids.

To Whom It May Concern:

We would like to say how professional Angela Buckner and Jesse Nichols were at presenting the proposal to us to have our house painted. We weren't looking to have this done but couldn't pass up the opportunity to help out hard working college kids.

As for the job itself, they took pride in their work and made sure everything was cleaned up, and as we walked around the house, Angela was finding things that she wanted to touch up and came back to finish the job and she wasn't satisfied unless we were satisfied.

In the future we would recommend College Works Painting to our friends and family for the fact that the people working for you are very professional and hard working.

Thanks again,
