To whom it may concern,

We have recently had our house painted by zach and his team from college works. He was very patient with us, taking time to fit our need and our budget and producing a great improvement to our home, also increasing in value.

His service was professional and dependable, keeping his word and ensuring our satisfaction. Although we had some trouble deciding on the color, zach was very patient taking time to give us several test patches.

We are very satisfied with the quality workmanship and the care that was taken with our property. We would highly recommend his work to friends and family.

Respectfully,
