To Whom It May Concern:

In June of 2005 College Works painted our house. Reynard Blasa was the branch operator. He was very knowledgeable in all aspects of the project, and patiently explained everything in detail from start to finish.

Rey's crew was very professional, and quickly worked to complete the job in a timely manner. When the house was finished, it was evident that the crew had been meticulous. The house looked great, and there were no telltale signs of spilled paint or equipment anywhere.

We wouldn't hesitate to recommend College Works to anyone in search of house painters.

Sincerely.
