This past week we had our house painted by the College Works Painters. Being the father of two of the painters and knowing their lack of previous experience in painting, I have to say I was extremely impressed with the training they went through and the knowledge they learned prior to painting our house.

I had an opportunity also to see them paint one of our neighbor's houses and heard from that neighbor how thorough they were and how professional they handled themselves.

I have passed on to all the employees at the company I work with and recommended to them that if they wanted a professional painting job this summer at a very reasonable price I would highly recommend the College Works Painters.

Sincerely,

Robert R. Campion Jr.
