

College Works Painting Reference Letter
Malcolm & nick Frazier

When making the decision to have our loud painted, you gave three different companies the opportunity to bid on the job Taylor Hathaway of the company "College Works", underbid the other two companies by a unsiderable amount. We were impressed by Taylor's good manners and professional demeanor.

When making the decision to have our loud painted, you gave three different companies the opportunity to bid on the job Taylor Hathaway of the company "College Works", underbid the other two companies by a unsiderable amount. We were impressed by Taylor's good manners and professional demeanor

Taylor and his crew proved themselves to be hardworking professional who take prick in their work, and the results prove this.

The link of communication are constantly kept open to insure your satisfaction. We could not be happier with the results, our house was painted to our specifications precisely

I thank Taylor and his crew for a job well done, and highly recommend "College Works" to anyone considering having their house painted

Sincerely

Malcolm & nick Frazier

When making the decision to have our house painted, we gave three different companies the opportunity to bid on the job. Taylor Hathaway of the company, "College Works", underbid the other two companies by a considerable amount. We were impressed by Taylor's good manners and professional demeanor.

Taylor and his crew proved themselves to be hardworking, professional who take pride in their work, and the results prove this.

The lines of communication are constantly kept open to insure your satisfaction. We could not be happier with the results, our house was painted to our specifications, precisely.

I thank Taylor and his crew for a job well done, and highly recommend "College Works" to anyone considering having their house painted.

Sincerely,