My first introduction to College Works Painting was last spring when they were painting my neighbor's house. At that time I met with and asked Daniel McElroy for a quotation.

College Works Painting

My first introduction to College Works Painting was last spring when they were painting my neighbor's house. At that time I met with and asked Daniel McElroy for a quotation. He prepared a very professional quotation for me and I scheduled a time in August to have my house painted.

My project was coordinated by Branch Manager, Aristoi Brown, with the painting done by Derek and Moser. I am very pleased with the work of Derek and Moser and found Aristoi easy to work with and extremely knowledgeable.

I am happy to recommend College Works Painting to anyone planning to have their house painted.

Your truly,

Sandra Hall
