To Whom It May Concern:

This summer I was necessary to have the exterior of my home painted. As a result, I contacted College Works Painting. Upon receiving a bid, I chose to have them do the work.

The entire process (from the bid to the final touches) was extremely professional. Following this pleasant experience, I would highly recommend College Works Painting to other people. In fact, my neighbors used them.

One of the painters was Taeden Nord. May I say he, along with other people on the crew, contributed to making the experience a most pleasant one.

Needless to say, because of this experience I would highly recommend Traeden and the crew from College Works Painting. Anyone who employs them will have a quality paint job.

Sincerely,

Linda M. Kruse
