My husband John and I were instantly impressed with Phil. He had the enthusiasm and The motivation to take on quite a large responsibility. He seemed intelligent and personable.

To Whom It May Concern:

My husband John and I were instantly impressed with Phil. He had the enthusiasm and The motivation to take on quite a large responsibility. He seemed intelligent and personable.

Phil's presentation of the materials was laced with interesting side stories which made the time fly by.

The work itself was professional. I don't think my house ever looked that good before Phil checked in with us regularly to make sure we were satisfied and followed up at the end of the job with a thorough examination.

I would recommend Phil and his college painters to anyone. We are very satisfied.

Sincerely,

Kathleen J. Pivnickas
