Evan,

I just wanted to write and say that I am extremely pleased and satisfied with the exterior painting of our house. We knew it had to be done, but hadn't had the time to call and get estimates. When you knocked on our door, it was a godsend. With both of us working full time, half the battle of any project is deciding who will do it and making those phone calls.

After speaking with you in our kitchen for just a few minutes that afternoon, we felt totally confident that you and your crew would do a great job and you did! I would not have any qualms about recommending this company to my friends and neighbors. You said you would be there and get the job done and you did. Not an easy thing to find these days!

Besides getting a great paint job, it was just nice to meet such a friendly, hard-working young man. Whatever company hires you in the future will be extremely lucky.

Sincerely,
Jennifer Meray
