Please be advised that I decided to have College Works do the painting of the exterior trim, siding and eaves of my home after talking with student manager Kyle Nakayama. He impressed me as being an intelligent, highly motivated individual who has proven to be responsible, conscientious, and hard working.

Re: College Works Painting

Please be advised that I decided to have College Works do the painting of the exterior trim, siding and eaves of my home after talking with student manager Kyle Nakayama. He impressed me as being an intelligent, highly motivated individual who has proven to be responsible, conscientious, and hard working. He provided me with a quote and explained how their program works and what their quote covered. During the painting process he kept me apprised of his progress on an ongoing basis.

Kyle and crew member Greg Richardson were extremely hard working in completing the painting in a professional manner. They were diligent in their efforts to ensure that I was satisfied. They spent an extensive amount of time in preparing the house for the paint job, including the repairing of cracks. When they left the job each day, the area was left very neat and orderly.

The entire job, from prepping to painting, was done in done in a timely manner. I am extremely pleased with the finished result.

Sincerely,
