To Whom It May Concern:

In am gladly writing this letter at the request of Timothy Foley, Branch Manager for Collegeworks Painting and his delightful crew of works.

Collegeworks Painting did fine job of painting our Victorian home. It had not been painted in over 14 years when we purchased so there was much to do. In addition, there was a good bit of detail to do on the house. We were very pleased with the result. One comment from a friend of ours was that "looked like it was supposed to". Another, "I'd never noticed what a great carriage house you have". I would say this is a fine testimonial.

Timothy Foley was excellent to work with in all stages of the process with no detail or request considered impossible. His consideration for us was exemplary. He even was kind enough to let our dog out when we weren't home. This was just a small example of excellent customer service and consideration.

I would recommend this company to my friends for their good honest work.

Sincerely,

Margaret A. Hanegraaf
