

College Works Painting Reference Letter
Doug and Karen Anderton
Provo, Utah

Our experience with College Works Painting, which extended from March until May of 2008, was one of professionalism. All participants in the painting project were prompt, gave accurate, intelligent descriptions of the processes, and exhibited a high level of professionalism on almost every level.

May 7, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

Our experience with College Works Painting, which extended from March until May of 2008, was one of professionalism. All participants in the painting project were prompt, gave accurate, intelligent descriptions of the processes, and exhibited a high level of professionalism on almost every level.

The job itself was also top notch. Precautions were taken to ensure a clean working environment. The painters were accommodating to all our needs and great care and attention were paid to all details relating to all matters.

We therefore recommend College Works Painting to anyone seeking a high quality, detail-oriented painting experience that is enjoyable and well thought out.

Signed,

Doug and Karen Anderton
Provo, Utah

May 7, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

Our experience with College Works Painting, which extended from March until May of 2008, was one of professionalism. All participants in the painting project were prompt, gave accurate, intelligent descriptions of the processes, and exhibited a high level of professionalism on almost every level.

The job itself was also top notch. Precautions were taken to ensure a clean working environment. The painters were accommodating to all our needs and great care and attention were paid to all details relating to all matters.

We therefore recommend College Works Painting to anyone seeking a high quality, detail-oriented painting experience that is enjoyable and well thought out.

Signed,

Doug and Karen Anderton
Provo, Utah