To Whom It May Concern:

It was my privilege to witness a team of college students perform in the tasks of soliciting, estimating, preparation, and painting of our home through the college works program. The painters, Karl and Adrian, performed with the utmost professionalism by being punctual and enthusiastic on the job. Under the guidance and supervision of Miss Brianna Russell, they worked efficiently and produced a quality job. I highly recommend the crew and Miss Russell to anyone interested in getting their house painted.

Sincereley,
