We engaged the services of Joanne Amlag to paint our house in the Summer of 2004. The work was done in the context of her association with the College Works organization. Our dealings with her were heartening in that she proved that there are young people today with the character to be the great leaders of tomorrow. She is a pleasant, dependable, hard-working, energetic, professional woman and we were delighted to give her our business.

To whom it may concern:

We engaged the services of Joanne Amlag to paint our house in the Summer of 2004. The work was done in the context of her association with the College Works organization. Our dealings with her were heartening in that she proved that there are young people today with the character to be the great leaders of tomorrow. She is a pleasant, dependable, hard-working, energetic, professional woman and we were delighted to give her our business.

She practiced, without exception, the uncommon virtue of communication. She kept us informed and communicated with us when she said she would. She actively and continuously sought our input and feedback. When it was provided, she listened and responded appropriately.

She also did a very good job of hiring her crew, The two gentlemen who painted our house were very serious about their work, arriving very early and staying very late. They were unassuming, conscientious and focused on the task. They were polite and immediately responded to requests or issues we raised.

Overall we were impressed with the personal and leadership skills Joanne demonstrated. We anticipate she will succeed in any endeavor she embarks upon, We wouldn't hesitate to pick her for our team any day of the week.

Sincerely,

Susan and Craig Haughtelin
